TEEN SAVES HOMELESS MAN'S LIFE

Report by Tom Martin

*Bradley acted as others 'walked by'
on busy city street*

A TEENAGER from Skelmersdale saved the life of a homeless man who had collapsed in the street.

Bradley Jacobsen, 16, was the only person to stop and help after he saw a man "having something like a fit" on the busy Church Street in Liverpool last Wednesday (April 21).

Despite others walking past, he wanted to help and rushed over to the man before calling 999.

The man then stopped breathing, so Bradley had to start CPR, which is something he has never done before.

Thankfully the man regained consciousness thanks to Bradley's actions and the paramedics then arrived to take him to hospital.

He said: "I was in Liverpool going to buy some clothes when I saw a homeless man who was having something like a fit.

"I went over to see if he was okay and he was fine for a few minutes then all of a sudden he stopped breathing and closed his eyes so I quickly called 999 and I was told I had to start CPR.

"This is something I have never done before and thankfully he was saved. There were adults just walking past.

"He woke up afterwards, when the paramedics came he had oxygen in his nose. Afterwards, I was just relieved that he was okay.

"This was a very scary experience for me as I am only 16 years old."

Town's first cinema in 39 years set to open next month

Covid restrictions permitting, big screen theatre at Concourse will start showing movies on May 17!

A DATE has been set for the grand opening of Skelmersdale's first cinema in 39 years.

Ultra Star Cinema is planning to open at the Concourse Shopping Centre on Monday, May 17 with a line-up of classic films.

The opening will only go ahead if the government guidelines, which currently state that indoor pubs, restaurants and entertainment venues can reopen from that date, do not change.

The two-screen theatre is being billed as an affordable experience, with tickets averaging £5 and with competitively priced food and drinks when it is fully up and running.

Because there are no newly released films available until July, it will screen classic movie favourites from the past 40 years and there will be a limited food and drinks menu. Tickets will cost just £3 and will be sold on a first-come, first served basis.

In the first week of opening, it is showing Oscar-winning film Forrest Gump, starring Tom Hanks, from 7pm, and in the second screen American crime drama Scarface, featuring Al Pacino, will be shown from 7.30pm, Monday to Thursday.

On Friday-Sunday, the cinema will show the 2019 superhero movie Captain Marvel at 7pm, while American Beauty, starring Kevin Spacey, will be shown at 7.30pm.

Asif Sahil, managing director of Ultra Star Cinema, said: "I'm so excited that just over a year since we started construction work to transform part of the Concourse Shopping Centre into a modern cinema that we are finally going to be able to welcome guests. We'll be limiting customers to 75% capacity but will keep that under review and because there is 1.5 metre spacing between rows, we can guarantee plenty of room for everyone.

"We'll be showing some fantastic retro films until July, when we expect a full programme to be available to us and we are looking forward to welcoming everyone."

Each 125-seat auditorium is fitted with comfy, Italian leather high-back chairs, to create a luxury feel with additional legroom.

Andrew Barrett, retail director at LCP, which manages the shopping centre on behalf of the Skelmersdale Limited Partnership, said the opening of the cinema was an exciting prospect for the town.

"We know people have waited a long time for this and we are pleased to have helped deliver this fantastic new leisure offer for the community. This will be an exciting new chapter for the Concourse Shopping Centre."

Edge Hill crowned University of the Year at awards ceremony

By Danielle Thompson

...and Vice-Chancellor Dr John Cater receives Lifetime Achievement accolade

EDGE Hill has been crowned University of the Year in the prestigious Educate North Awards in recognition of its 'continued commitment to deliver an exceptional student experience.'

The Ormskirk university was awarded the coveted top prize for the 'exceptional progress' it has made to deliver investment and innovation over the past 12 months and its 'dedication to placing students at the heart of everything it does'.

The award was announced in a specially streamed event that saw leading figures from across the region's educational sector join together to celebrate excellence in further and higher education.

Also on the night, Edge Hill University's Vice-Chancellor Dr John Cater picked up the esteemed Lifetime Achievement accolade in recognition of his vision of education as a force for good.

Dr Cater, the longest-serving head of a UK higher education

Edge Hill and (left) Edge Hill's Vice-Chancellor Dr John Carter, who was also a winner on the night institution, has been instrumental in the transformation of Edge Hill. He said: "Delivering a first-class student experience has always been at the heart of Edge Hill's ethos, which makes this recognition even more meaningful.

"The University is committed to the experience we provide from the first day that our students join us, right through to their employment journey as graduates.

"Initiatives such as our Student Journey Project and Student Opportunity Fund, as well as the continued investment into our campus are borne out of our ambition to create the best possible environment for our students to thrive and achieve.

"In such a challenging and unprecedented year for the education sector, we have remained committed to placing our students at the centre of our decisions. We believe this focus benefits everyone, from the students themselves, to the employers who recruit them and the people whose lives are improved with our talented alumni.

"This award bears testament to the outstanding work of the staff and students who represent Edge Hill."

Plan ahead for health services during Bank Holiday weekend

RESIDENTS across West Lancashire are being urged to prepare for the upcoming Bank Holiday by familiarising themselves with health services available across the region.

With the Early May Bank Holiday fast approaching on Monday, May 3, a number of services may be closed or working on reduced hours.

Dr Peter Gregory, local GP and chair at NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), said: "Local health services have remained available throughout the pandemic and it is important to know where to turn if you need help and support over the Early May Bank Holiday.

"If you need urgent care, please call 111 in the first instance. Their team of professionals can help point you in the right direction and this helps us manage services. If you need to visit hospital, you will be given a timed appointment. In an emergency medical situation, you should always dial 999.

"We would also like to reiterate the importance of residents being prepared with repeat prescriptions in advance of the POD closure on Bank Holiday Monday. You can manage your repeat prescription online using Patient Access/MyGP, with details of this service included below, or by calling 01695 588522.

You should also ensure you have a well-stocked medicine cupboard at home that can be used to treat common ailments and conditions."

Poet joins hospital staff in Covid poetry reading

DURING lockdown, former Children's Laureate, Michael Rosen, joined staff from Southport and Ormskirk hospitals for a reflection of a year with Covid-19.

March 18 was the anniversary of the first positive Covid result for an inpatient at Southport Hospital.

"Covid, one year on: a reflection" is a 20-minute film with contributions from Trish Armstrong-Child, chief executive of Southport and Ormskirk Hospital NHS Trust, board non-executive director Gurpreet Singh, and hospital chaplain the Rev Martin Abrams.

The main part of the reflection, however, is a poem inspired by Michael Rosen's These Are The Hands.

He wrote the poem to mark the 60th anniversary of the NHS in 2008. Last year, staff were asked to offer their own lines for a hospital

"thought for the day". Updated with new contributions, Rosen (below) joined staff in a reading of the poem as part of the day's reflection.

He fell ill with Covid last March and spent 47 days in intensive care. By the time he went home in June, he had lost most of the sight in his left eye and hearing in his left ear, and had to learn to walk again.

He said it was "a pleasure" to contribute to the reading.

Martin Abrams said: "Different organisations marked a year since the beginning of Covid on different dates and in different ways.

"The hope is the reflection will both grasp the enormity of how life changing the last year has been for so many people while looking forward with hope."

The film concludes with the song "Defying Gravity" from the musical Wicked. It was recorded by West End Men in support of the NHS last year which, because of a local connection, they have agreed to be used as part of the reflection.

'Huge disappointment' at planning permission for housing development close to primary school

Report by Henry James

Go ahead for 'brutal' scheme despite objections from residents

A SKELMERSDALE resident has expressed "huge disappointment" at a new development close to St James's School (Ashurst) receiving planning permission - despite the objections of locals.

At the end of March, it was announced Tawd Valley Developments (TVD), which is owned by West Lancashire Borough Council, now has four active development sites in Skelmersdale and they are in Eskbank, Fairstead, Brierfield and now Northfield.

The Northfield development is the latest project to 'break ground'. Work has just started on site to build 27 new council homes that will be available to rent from the Council and will welcome their new tenants in 2022.

However, Skelmersdale resident, Juliet Brotheridge is not happy about the development and commented: "I wanted to express my huge disappointment that the new development adjacent to St James's School (Ashurst) got granted planning permission after 500 people lodged an objection.

"There is plenty of housing being built at the moment in Skelmersdale and this piece of land was a refuge for wildlife including four types of orchid, oak trees,

Land earmarked for development close to St James's school willow, etc and an array of birds. The whole site has been ruthlessly stripped bare of all foliage with zero sensitivity to the environment. I am in favour of council housing and affordable rents etc, but this is brutal. Could this not have been done in a more restrained manner reflecting the concerns of local residents?

"Is this another case of the views of Skelmersdale being totally ignored?"

A spokesperson for West Lancashire Borough Council responded: "The impact of the development on the site's ecology and trees was fully assessed as part of the planning application. As part of this process, the Council sought specialist and independent advice to assess the ecological impacts of the proposed development.

"While it was accepted that the site would need to be cleared of vegetation to make way for the housing development, the proposal included replacement landscaping and the development was judged not to have significant ecological impacts on protected sites or species.

"All of the correspondence from local residents was considered by the Council's Planning Committee and the Committee also heard from speakers at the meeting, with all viewpoints given due and fair consideration by Councillors in the assessment of the application.

"Councillors decided that the principle of residential development was acceptable on the site and the scheme was considered to be compliant with both local and national planning policies, therefore planning permission was granted."

Health leaders hear the views of patients, staff and the public on local services

Health leaders in Southport, Formby and West Lancashire have been listening to the views of patients, staff and the public about their views and experiences of local health and care services.

Shaping Care Together is led by a partnership of NHS organisations; Southport and Ormskirk Hospital NHS Trust, NHS Southport and Formby CCG and NHS West Lancashire CCG.

These organisations are working together to look at the challenges currently faced by health and care in light of the COVID-19 pandemic, financial pressures and the growing demand for NHS services in and out of hospital. Early findings from the review reveal that people wanted to give feedback about their GP Practice, hospital and community based services.

There have been many positive experiences of online consultations with GPs and hospital care but some expressed concerns that they don't want this to become normalised in the future. There was overwhelming goodwill towards the NHS and the work being done to address the pandemic.

The Programme will now start to develop potential solutions to areas for improvement.

Developer plans to build 325 new homes on land near Ormskirk

Report by Tom Martin

A MAJOR housing developer wants to build 325 homes on fields near Ormskirk, which will involve the demolition and relocation of Morton's Dairies.

Bellway has submitted a planning application to Sefton Council to create the huge development on a patch of land to the north of Kenyons Lane, between Liverpool Road and the A59, on the edge of Lydiate.

As part of the plan, Morton's Dairies, on Kenyons Lane, will be torn down with the business relocating elsewhere.

Bellway state in their planning application: "The site is split into two distinct parts. The northern part comprises low level maintained grass. The southern part is occupied by Morton's Dairies which remains an operational dairy although this will relocate as part of these proposals.

"Throughout the layout design process, a key focus has been to ensure delivery of a new neighbourhood that integrates into the wider settlement.

"The vision was designed around existing and potential new green infrastructure to encourage community activity. The connection to the wider area has been embraced, reinforcing the gateway into the development.

"The development has been driven by the need to propose an appropriate scheme which logically integrates into the community of Lydiate. The layout has been formed to create a highquality residential development within the context of Lydiate."

Sefton Council has not yet made a decision on the plans.

Lancashire Police take part in national knife crime campaign

Report by Tom Martin

LANCASHIRE Police is joining other forces across the country in supporting a national week of "intensive action" against knife crime.

Running from April 26 until May 2, Operation Sceptre takes place nationally twice a year and supports the work that Lancashire Police does to ensure people across the county feel safe from knife crime.

The initiative sees officers working with partner organisations to conduct a week-long range of activities including visiting local shops to give advice on the laws on selling knives; conducting knife sweeps in public places; using metal detecting arches and wands in public places to identify people who are carrying knives; and visiting schools to provide education to young people, with an exciting link with a well-known local knife crime educator.

Operation Sceptre links closely with Lancashire Police's longer-term Operation Edge initiative, which focuses on reducing and preventing violent crime involving knives and bladed weapons.

Since its inception two years ago, Operation Edge has seen over 7,000 knives and other weapons removed from Lancashire's streets. This has been driven by a combination of prevention, enforcement and intelligence-led work with some aspects focused on hot-spot areas and others taking place within wider communities.

Lancashire Police has already been trying to crackdown on knife crime through Operation Sceptre

Inspector Dave Oldfield of Lancashire Violence Reduction Network, said: "As we come out of pandemic restrictions and our lives get back to normal we urge anyone who carries a knife to stop and think before putting a knife in their pocket. Think about how your life could be changed if your knife was used against you and think about the long-term impact that could have on your family."

"It's illegal to carry a knife without a reasonable purpose and it's illegal to use a knife in a threatening way. People can and do end up in prison.

"Fortunately, at less than 1%, knife crime is low in Lancashire compared with other parts of the country. But, one incident is one too many and we are committed to doing everything we can to tackle the root causes of serious violence, together with partner organisations, to ensure that people in Lancashire feel safe."

If you have any information about knife crime in Lancashire, contact the police on 101 or report anonymously to the independent charity, Crimestoppers, on 0800 555 111.

MP welcomes support from rail companies for domestic abuse survivors

Report by Henry James

WEST Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper has tabled an Early Day Motion (EDM) in the House of Commons, recognising rail companies' support for those experiencing domestic abuse and raising awareness of the scheme.

The 'Rail to Refuge' scheme, which was due to end next week, is being continued by train companies to help more people escape domestic abuse and reach a safe refuge.

The decision comes as figures show four survivors a day, on average, have been using the lifesaving scheme to access free train travel.

Rail to Refuge is a joint initiative between rail companies and Women's Aid in which train operators cover the cost of train tickets for women, men and children escaping domestic abuse travelling to refuge accommodation.

Free travel can be a lifeline for people fleeing abuse who may not have access to cash.

MP Rosie Cooper

Almost two-thirds (62%) of people who used Rail to Refuge said they would not have travelled if the journey had not been paid for.

All train operators in Great Britain took up the initiative on April 9 2020, initially for the length of the first lockdown, before extending it until the end of March 2021.

Train companies have now decided to continue Rail to Refuge as reports show that abuse has worsened during coronavirus restrictions.

Two-thirds (67%) of survivors currently experiencing abuse say that their abuser has started using lockdown restrictions or the Covid-19 virus and its consequences as part of the abuse.

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper said: "The Rail to Refuge scheme is a fantastic commitment from rail companies to support women, men and children who sadly experience domestic abuse and must flee their home or abuser in order to gain safety."

"Working with Women's Aid, the Rail Delivery Group which is made up of train operators, took up the initiative 12 months ago to provide free travel for those escaping their abuser, many of whom have experienced economic abuse where the perpetrator controls the survivor's access to money."

"Survivors who need to access this support are encouraged to do so in a safe way, by initially making contact with a domestic abuse service at womensaid.org.uk or phoning the National Helpline on 0808 2000 247."

Direct debit service set up for garden waste collections

A garden waste collection service used by thousands of people in West Lancashire now has a new direct debit scheme.

The new subscription year begins on June 1 and residents will be able to subscribe through their self-service account on the West Lancashire Borough Council website from April 29.

To guarantee no interruption in service, residents who are currently subscribed should sign up for the new subscription year before 31 May 2021.

Heidi McDougall, West Lancashire Borough Council's Corporate Director of Place & Community, said: "With more people discovering the joys of gardening over the last 12 months, this is a great time to sign up for our garden waste collection service online."

"Last year we had more people signing up than the year before, with over 90% signing up online. Following feedback from residents, we have introduced a new direct debit service for garden waste subscriptions. We know that residents want to continue to receive the service without having to remember to re-subscribe each year and they can now do this by signing up to our new direct debit service online."

Residents who subscribe for 2021/22 by direct debit will have their subscription automatically renewed every year, unless they choose to cancel the service.

The cost of the service remains the same this year and further information including the cost for additional bins is available online. New customers can sign up at any time and purchase their brown bin online. To make your bin easily identifiable to collection crews, please add your house number to your bin.

For further information on how to set up a direct debit online for garden waste or sign up for a customer account, visit the website: www.westlancs.gov.uk/gard-waste.

Men-Aces coach, Carl, pens his first children's book - on his disability

By Henry James

THE manager of Skem Men-Aces disability football team, Carl Eaton, has written his first children's book.

The book is called My Gan-Gan's Pram and Carl describes it as a 'heart-warming book' featuring his granddaughter, Harriet Eva, who he calls Curly, and her granddad, Carl - Gan Gan.

He said: "It's a story of the very special bond between a little girl and her disabled granddad and their wonderful exploits with lots of laughter. Curly loves to visit her Gan-Gan because he has the best toy in the world, Gan-Gan's pram. Together, with the wheelchair that Curly calls a pram, they have many adventures from sailing the seven seas as pirates, riding on a big red bus, racing against each other and speeding downhill as fast as they can!"

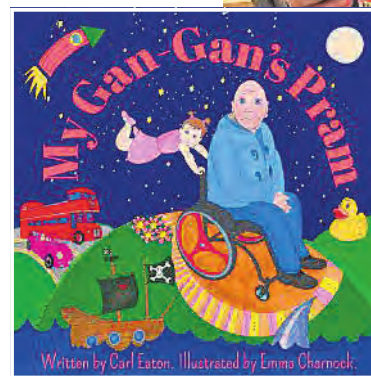

"One of Curly's first ever toys was a little yellow duck, called 'Quack Quack' that she adored, and on each page of this book, a little Yellow Duck is hiding and it's the readers job to find where they all are. Look very carefully as they are clever little ducks, and they are very good at staying out of sight."

"Initially, I was going to write about my daily struggles living with a disability as I really do not get on with it at all, despite me giving the impression that I am fine with it but I decided, in the end, to look at disability through the innocence of a child's eyes as I believe that disability is underrepresented in children's literature."

Carl was born in 1962 with Spina Bifida. He added: "Thanks to Mum and Dad I've led a very happy and fulfilled life. Although I am a wheelchair user, I've worked all my adult life and I am currently a team leader for a young men's support service.

"I also founded and manage the most successful and highly decorated disabled football club in the country, the Skem Men-Aces, who back in 2017 were awarded the Queen's Award for Voluntary Services at Buckingham Palace."

"In 2015, I was the recipient of the BBC North West Unsung hero award and in 2017 I was awarded the Freedom of the Borough of West Lancashire."

Strict rules on dog walking reintroduced in neighbouring borough

Locals travelling to nearby Sefton with their pet will need to know new legislation

Report by Tom Martin

ANYONE from West Lancashire who is planning a trip to nearby Sefton with their pet will need to know a list of strict rules on dog walking.

Laws can vary from borough to borough, so dog walkers from Ormskirk or Skelmersdale will need to be aware of new rules if they plan a day out to Sefton, or risk being fined.

At a full Sefton Council meeting on Thursday, April 22, the existing Public Space Protection Order (PSPO), which was first implemented in 2017, was revised to 'promote responsible dog ownership across Sefton'.

The council say that since the rules were first introduced, officers have seen a reduction in dog-related complaints across the borough.

The rules were first introduced in July 2017 for a three year period, which ended in July last year.

The PSPO has now been reintroduced by Sefton Council after it was formulated by Sefton's Legal and Public Protection teams, in conjunction with Green Sefton, the council service responsible for its parks and open spaces.

Some of the rules include:

- Restricting the number of

Strict rules on dog walking have been extended in Sefton dogs that can be walked by one person to a maximum of six;

- Prohibiting dogs from entering enclosed playgrounds and fenced sports pitches, including multi use game sport facilities;

- Prohibiting dogs from entering marked sports pitches during specified periods;

- Keeping dogs on a lead of no more than 2m within defined picnic sites and family areas, all public roads and footways and all cemeteries and crematoria;

- Authorised officers to direct a dog owner to place their dog on a lead to prevent a nuisance or behaviour likely to cause annoyance or disturbance to others.

Peter Moore, Sefton Council's Head of Highways & Public Protection, said: "The majority of dog owners across the borough already understand and do most of the things in the Order anyway, so the reintroduction of these measures will have very little or no impact on them at all.

"What the Order will do is continue to encourage greater responsible dog ownership and promote a cleaner and greener environment across Sefton's parks, open spaces and neighbourhoods.

"We'll be reviewing the existing signage at our parks, playgrounds and picnic areas to ensure that those who use our outdoors spaces to spend time with their four-legged friends are aware of their responsibilities."

Failure to comply with the Order will result in a Fixed Penalty Notice of £75.

Finishing touches being made to new community building

THE Trustees of Hesketh Bank Community Centre are putting the finishing touches to their new building, with the added bonus of their social meeting space furnishings being funded by a £2,239 grant from the Local Connections Fund.

The Local Connections Fund by the National Lottery Community Fund was designed to help charities and community groups in England that are working to reduce loneliness by helping them build connections across their communities.

Mike Ellis, who wrote the successful application for the monies, explained, "It was always our aim with the new building to become a hub for the community and among other objectives help reduce loneliness which is a real issue, now more than ever, in Hesketh Bank. Therefore, the design included a social meeting space, something the existing centre did not have."

GP extended access service resumes

RESIDENTS in West Lancashire are advised that the GP extended access service has now resumed.

Launched in 2016, the extended access service makes accessing primary care easier by making appointments available in the evenings and weekends.

The service was temporarily halted at the height of the pandemic but it has now resumed and is available seven days a week across West Lancashire.

Making an appointment to see a GP in the evening and at weekends is as simple as calling your local GP practice and making an appointment through the reception as you would do normally, patients can choose which practice they visit from those that are offering this service when making their appointment.

You do not need to be registered with these practices to access the extended access service as when you contact your GP practice, they can book you into your nearest alternative practice.

Patients can access many of the services that they would do usually from new and existing problems, routine GP checkups and blood tests.

To keep staff and patients safe from COVID-19, patients will need to book in advance of attending, all clinicians will be wearing full PPE and there is allocated time between each appointment to enable cleaning between appointments.

Dr Peter Gregory, local GP and chair at NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), said: "It's really important that local residents can access a GP at a time that is convenient for them. The extended access service means that they can access a GP in the evening and weekends, at a time more convenient for them. To make an appointment simply contact your GP practice as you would do normally. We have three practices offering extended access in West Lancs, one in each neighbourhood, but as long as you are registered with a GP in West Lancashire, you can access this service."

County council agree how to spend highways budget

Report by Henry James

LANCASHIRE County Council's cabinet has agreed a further detailed programme of investment in highways infrastructure over the next year.

The council has already outlined how it will spend most of its £45.8m highways budget on improvements to vital infrastructure such as roads, streetlights, bridges, and walking and cycling facilities. This is a £14m increase on last year.

The Covid-19 pandemic delayed confirmation of the funding which the council will receive from the Department for Transport for the next year, leaving over £13.5m still needing to be allocated to specific schemes, and a report to the council's cabinet has outlined the proposed detailed programme of investment.

This includes £3.4m for resurfacing schemes to the busiest A, B, and C roads, £2.4m for resurfacing lengths of over 40 residential roads, and £1m to reconstruct pavements.

A total of £3m will also be prioritised for repairing small areas of damage to 60 roads, where the repairs needed are too extensive to be treated as a pothole, but the rest of the road has not deteriorated to the extent

Work will get underway on the projects that it needs to be fully resurfaced.

The proposed schemes have been prioritised taking into account where repeated pothole repairs have previously been made, as well as being reported by residents.

A further £2.12m has been identified for further surface dressing schemes, where a 'tar and chippings' treatment is used to seal the road and protect it from moisture, along with anti-skid treatments and renewal of reflective cat's eyes.

Phil Durnell, director of highways and transport for Lancashire County Council, said: "Lancashire's highways infrastructure is vital to our economy and daily lives, ensuring that people and goods can travel safely and efficiently.

"It's therefore important that we continually invest in maintaining our highways to keep them in good condition.

"We use data from surveys and inspections to identify the right time to carry out maintenance and, wherever possible, extend the life of our infrastructure before more extensive and expensive repairs are needed.

"We look forward to carrying out these improvements over the next year, and while we always plan carefully to try to minimise disruption while we carry out repairs, we're grateful for people's patience which also helps to ensure the safety of our workforce and members of the public."

Residents enjoying the sensory garden

New sensory garden keeps care home residents entertained

CARE home residents from Burscough have been enjoying their new sensory garden.

Lily Wharf Lodge, which first opened its doors last year, has a new sensory garden with space for outdoor exercise and themed sections to reflect the local area.

The smell of flowers, the sound of the birds and the taste of freshly grown fruit and vegetables are just a few benefits associated with sensory gardens that provide therapeutic, inspiring and calming qualities.

The garden contains a 'Farm Life' area, which features straw bales and tractor tyres, as well as a small outdoor greenhouse that homes several strawberry plants, herbs and flowers.

The care home also teamed up with members of the local community to help incorporate Burscough's rich heritage into the garden.

Cinema plans are approved by council

Plans have been approved to modify the former Regal Cinema building in Ormskirk into a retail unit, cafe, student accommodation and gym.

West Lancashire Borough Council met at a virtual Planning Committee meeting on Thursday, April 22 to discuss the proposal, which was given a green light by the decision-makers.

The Church Street building, which was recently occupied on the ground floor by Poundstretcher, was built in 1936 and opened as The Regal Cinema. The Regal closed in 1963, then became a bingo hall and a Tesco supermarket in 1965.

The present application includes proposals to part demolish and extend number 37 Church Street only (former Poundstretcher site) and build a part four five storey building comprising of a mixed use ground floor including retail unit along Church Street, a cafe/restaurant to the rear, private student gym and student accommodation, a further retail unit on the lower ground floor to the rear and three floors of student accommodation above.

In the development there are two units proposed. One of these would have a frontage at ground floor along Church Street and the second unit at lower ground floor creating a new frontage to the rear facing the car park. The cafe/restaurant would be situated at the rear of the ground floor.

The student accommodation would see 74 bedrooms over four floors.

Parents urged to sort out 'routine' jabs

By Tom Martin

HEALTH chiefs are urging parents, families and guardians from across the North West to attend essential, time-critical routine childhood immunisation appointments when invited.

Routine vaccination appointments have continued throughout the Covid-19 pandemic and millions of children have been vaccinated safely.

Essential, routine vaccinations like the MMR vaccine can save a child's life and will be arranged by your GP practice. It is really important to protect your children as soon as possible and take them for their vaccinations when invited.

As long as those attending appointments, including parents of babies or children, do not have COVID-19 symptoms or are not self-isolating, because someone in the household is displaying symptoms of Covid-19, all scheduled vaccinations should go ahead as normal. Your family doctor has measures in place to ensure the safety of you and your child during your visit.

Gill Marsh, screening and immunisation nurse consultant in the North West said: "This week is World Immunisation Week and the theme is 'Vaccines bring us closer.' That doesn't just mean the Covid-19 vaccine but other vaccines such as those your children need.

Parents are being urged to sort routine childhood vaccinations

"What matters most is that you and your children are kept safe and protected, not just from the pandemic, but also from the diseases that children's immunisations protect against.

"Every GP practice has taken precautions to ensure your safety when you attend.

"They have the knowledge to answer any questions you have about the immunisations, whether that be about the ingredients, side effects or any other concerns, so please feel free to ask. It's better to ask so we can help you protect little ones from potentially life-threatening diseases."

The national immunisation programme is highly successful in reducing the number of people suffering from serious and life-threatening illnesses such as whooping cough, meningitis and measles, with some illnesses almost disappearing completely.

High vaccine uptake can prevent a resurgence of infections, which would put the un-immunised, such as the very young or those unable to be vaccinated, at risk and also put unnecessary added pressure on the NHS at this difficult time.

For more details of which vaccinations are given, please visit www.nhs.uk/vaccinations

World Immunisation Week runs to April 30

All sessions follow the latest FA grassroots guidance and Government protocols.

Skelmersdale McDonald's franchisee Mark Blundell said: "After a challenging year, it's never been more important to get kids back playing sport and having fun with their friends."

"Football is the perfect way to do this. I am a big

"Our Fun Football programme is a real point of pride for the business and we're so pleased we can do our part to help get kids active again."

"Fun Football is all about enjoying football in a fun, safe and pressure-free environment, and it's been wonderful to see the joy on kids' faces as they return to playing the sport they love."

"We'll be putting on plenty more sessions throughout the spring and summer, ensuring all families in Skelmersdale can access the nation's favourite game."

The Skelmersdale Fun Football sessions are part of McDonald's programme that aims to provide five million hours of free Fun Football coaching to children in the UK by 2022.

Air Ambulance reaches 100th blood transfusion milestone

North West Air Ambulance

THE NORTH West Air Ambulance Charity (NWAA) has reached a significant milestone in its 'Blood on Board' project, which brings blood transfusion to critically ill and injured patients across the region.

The service administered blood products to its 100th pre-hospital patient in March 2021, after introducing the capability to perform pre-hospital blood transfusions by the road and in the field in January 2019.

NWAA attends over 2,000 missions each year, having attended 328 in Merseyside from March 2020 to March 2021.

Many a major trauma incidents, the likes of which require advanced care at scene to improve patient outcomes prior to hospital admission. This includes roadside blood transfusions which increase oxygen delivery and clot production, both crucial when a patient is suffering from massive bleeding.

Clint Jones, consultant anaesthetist at the North

West Air Ambulance Charity, said: "Since we introduced this capability with our partners, we've been closely monitoring and evaluating the impact it has had on patients."

"A significant number of patients who sustain traumatic injuries that cause massive blood loss, sadly pass away before reaching hospital. By transfusing blood and plasma as early as possible, we are drastically improving the chances of survival for the most seriously ill and injured patients we treat."

"The charity is so proud to have reached this milestone. I would like to say a huge thank you to all of our partners who continue to make this possible and continue to support and champion our charity, including Blood Bikes and our colleagues in the NHS."

"The North West Air Ambulance Charity relies solely on donations to remain operational, and without the generosity of our sponsors and supporters, it would not be possible to deliver this life saving service."

Funds secured for return of town's Comedy Festival

SOUTHPORT Comedy Festival 2021 is set to go ahead after securing vital backing from the Government's Culture Recovery Fund.

It means that some of the top names in UK comedy will be heading to Victoria Park in Southport for some much-needed laughter this October.

The shows will be held in a large marquee provided by Elite Marquees with lots of ventilation and social distancing in place.

Festival Director Brendan Riley said: "The Southport Comedy Festival is a go-go for 2021! It's big news for us, and big news for Southport! Of all the things we need and don't need this year, we all need a really good laugh!"

"We are thrilled to announce that we have received funding thanks to the government's Culture Recovery Fund so that we can continue to be here for you and Here For Culture."

"We are already talking with the Southport Flower Show team, Elite Marquees Ltd and Sefton Council Tourism to bring you much needed laughs again this October. It is great to see the town really pulling together. Up the Port!"

Southport Comedy Festival takes place every Autumn, usually at venues across the town including theatres, bars, restaurants, cinemas and more, bringing thousands of people and thousands of pounds into the local economy. This year Victoria Park will play host to every performance.

'Recovery'

Tickets prices are maintained at a competitive level with the event made possible thanks to the generosity of a number of much-valued local sponsors.

Last year's Southport Comedy Festival bill included Jason Manford, Russell Kane, Rich Hall, Jo Caulfield, Reginald D Hunter, Ed Byrne, Paul Zerdin, Paul Sinha and Andy Parsons. The event was sponsored by Southport firm Anthony James Estate Agents.

The 2020 shows were due to take place at Victoria Park initially in October and then in November. But despite a number of the shows being sold out, the organisers recognised the rising Covid cases in the region and took the sensible decision to cancel. Everyone who bought tickets last year saw their money returned through the Skiddle ticket booking operator.

The 2021 Southport Comedy Festival has now been made possible thanks to backing through the Government's Culture Recovery Fund in addition to support from local sponsors.

"The National Lottery Heritage Fund and Historic England have worked together to ensure that this significant investment from Government reaches the organisations most in need."

Southport Comedy Festival director Brendan Riley said: "This funding will help us to make the Festival happen this year, because it would have been in doubt otherwise."

"We lost money last year after we tried to stage the event, but the 2021 Festival is now guaranteed. It is a massive boost to make sure that it happens."

Hospice to provide family care packs after kind donation

Report by Tom Martin

QUEENSCOURT Hospice has been given a £1,560 donation to help create Family Care Packs to support children, young people and their families.

The local hospice has been given the donation by The Rotary Club of Ormskirk Clocktower and will be used to buy practical resources for the packs, such as books, arts materials, memory boxes and jars, and worry dolls.

Director of Nursing Helen Birch said: "Our Children and Family Support Services will use the packs to provide bereavement support, creating the right conditions for the children to think and talk about their feelings, and share their worries."

"The Rotary Club of Ormskirk Clocktower has supported Queenscourt many times and we are very grateful for this grant."

The money was raised by members of the Rotary Club of Ormskirk Clocktower through a variety of lockdown activities, including an online concert, recipe book and treasure hunt by car.

James Parsons, the Club's President for 2020/21, said: "All the members of our club were delighted to donate to Queenscourt Hospice - they do a fantastic job in our community!

"We have worked hard fundraising over the last few months during lockdown so we can finance this excellent project to support bereaved children. Every moment of our time and every effort we made was totally worth it."

Business owners join forces to solve 'common challenges'

MORE than 320 business owners and managers from across Lancashire have worked together to solve common challenges, share knowledge and grow as part of a government-funded business support programme.

The businesses have recruited staff, launched products and services, found new markets and improved their business resilience through the Peer Networks programme, which brought together owners and managers in a series of structured virtual sessions to help them learn from each other.

The fully-funded programme is now set to help hundreds more businesses over the coming year after receiving further funding due to its impact.

It feels like the goalposts have moved during UK lockdowns

I ALWAYS suspected that the most powerful arbiters of what makes a classic car are the chaps in hi-vis jackets at village shows – but I’ve a feeling that the goalposts have moved during lockdown.

You’ll know these chaps if you own a vaguely old car, as in more normal times they’ll be manning the gates, directing incoming motorists with a quiet word through a lowered window or, if they’re really up against it, with a single outstretched arm.

In an instant, they have to judge if your Subaru Impreza or Mazda MX-5 will be counted by the wider public as an important piece of the nation’s heritage.

Get it right and you’ll be sent to show off alongside the E-types and Austin A40s, but get it wrong and you’ll be sentenced to an afternoon in obscurity in the visitor car park, hiding between Renault Scenics and Skoda Kodiaks.

But there haven’t been many shows during the pandemic, and it’s only later this summer that it looks like some old favourites from across the North West, including the Lydiate Classic Car Show on July 4 and the Ormskirk MotorFest on August 29, get back underway.

In the meantime, and with car sales depressed during much of the shutdown, another judge, jury and executioner of old cars has sprung into action; the chaps who stick flyers on car windscreens, saying they’ll give you a decent cash price for scrapping it.

I know this because I was in Birkdale the other day and I spotted one of these on – drum roll, if you don’t mind – a Jaguar X-Type.

Coincidentally, a couple of us were talking about the X-Type in the Classic Car Weekly office barely a few days earlier, because the Jaguar Enthusiasts’ Club is organising a celebration for Britain’s 3-Series rival at its national rally in July – and the consensus was that the X-Type has, just about, made it to classic car-dom. There are so many things to commend the X-Type, starting with the common pub misconception that it’s a Mondeo in drag, whereas in reality it’s much more than that – you couldn’t buy a Mondeo with four-wheel-drive and a three-litre engine, for starters.

You could talk about how, while it was pitched squarely at 3-Series and A4 buyers in the early years of the new Millennium, Jaguar’s engineers benchmarked it against the Subaru Impreza Turbo when it was being developed.

Then there’s the local history angle, too; readers of a certain age will remember the palpable relief of Halewood factory workers on North West Tonight when, having been told their jobs were on the line when Ford Escort production ended, that they’d been given the gig of bolting the new ‘baby Jaguar’ together instead.

So to see the owner of a surviving X-Type being invited to scrap it saddened me, because the X-Type deserves a better fate than that.

It deserves to be taken under the wing of a Jaguar enthusiast, tidied up, and put on show at that club national rally.

Not convinced? Well, just remember that a generation or so people were eyeing up Jaguar Mk2s and early XJs for the scrapheap too.

The X-Type’s time will come, if it hasn’t already.

David Simister is the editor of Classic Car Weekly

Jaguar built the X-type at the former Ford factory in Halewood

LIVERPOOL DENTAL SPA

— IMPLANT & AESTHETIC DENTISTRY —

ARE YOU AFRAID OF THE DENTIST?

Wouldn't it be amazing to sleep through your dental treatment?

At the Liverpool Dental Spa we offer sedation which will allow you to get the smile you have always dreamed of!

Liverpool Dental Spa can offer nervous patients pain free dentistry no matter how big or small using sedation this will allow the most nervous patients to go through any dental procedure calmly and successfully.

Wouldn't it be fantastic to never have to worry about a denture moving or slipping ever again?

To have the confidence to choose anything off the menu and be able to laugh, sing and speak in public without that subconscious fear that your denture will let you down at the worst possible moment?

Dr Marius McGovern, clinical director at Liverpool Implant and Aesthetic Dental Spa, is passionate about ending denture suffering by using implants to provide same-day teeth.

He said: "Having missing teeth can have a social and functional impact, but here at Liverpool Implant and Aesthetic Dental Spa we aim to address this for our patients by providing same-day fixed teeth."

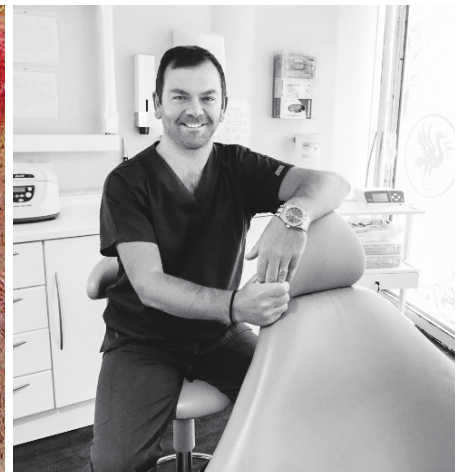

"Many people are now aware that dental implants can replace single missing teeth in a highly successful, attractive and long-lasting way."

"However the advancement in dental implant techniques allows replacement of all missing teeth and full dentures with All-on-4 in a single day!"
